APPENDIX.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

CANDIDATES for admission to the Freshman, or lowest class, are examined in Cæsar's Commentaries (5 books,) Sallust, Virgil (Eclogues, and Six Books of the Æneid,) Cicero's Select Orations contained in the volume in Usum Delphini, Mair's Introduction to Latin Syntax, the Gospels in the Greek Testament, Dalzel's Collectanea, Graeca Minora, or Jacob's Greek Reader, or other Authors equivalent in quantity, together with Latin and Greek Grammar, including Latin Prosody; also, on English Grammar, Arithmetic, Geography, ancient and modern.

Every student admitted to a class higher than the Freshman, is examined on all the previous studies of the class which he wishes to enter.

An accurate and thorough acquaintance with the studies required for admission is indispensably necessary, in order to receive the full advantage of the College course.

It is found from experience, that Students imperfectly prepared for the classes which they enter, are embarrassed in their future progress—and are seldom able to repair the want of solid preparatory instruction.

To prevent disappointment it should be distinctly understood, that an accurate and thorough knowledge of preliminary studies is more likely to insure admission and to enable the Student to improve the advantages of this Institution, than a superficial acquaintance with some higher branches of literature and science.

In all cases testimonials of moral character are required; and if the Student has been a member of another College he must bring with him a certificate from the President or Faculty, that he is free from censure in that institution.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

THE whole course of instruction requires four years ; namely, one year in each of the four classes into which the Students are divided.

Gentlemen not connected with the College have the privilege of attending the above lectures by making application to the several lecturers.

Other lectures are frequently given at the same hours in which the recitations are heard, and are therefore attended by none except the members of the several Classes.

EXAMINATIONS.

FOUR public examinations take place during the College year: one in the middle, and one at the close of each session. Absence from these examinations is found to be very injurious to the improvement of a student, and renders him liable to be placed in a lower class. Reports respecting the behaviour, diligence and scholarship of the students, are sent to the parents or guardians after each examination.

English Grammar, Arithmetic, and Geography, being required for admission, are not included in the College course of instruction; but in order to secure attention to these studies, indispensably necessary in every situation of life, the Classes are examined on them twice a year, and deficiencies, if any exist, are reported to parents and guardians.

LIBRARIES.

THE College Library contains about eight thousand five hundred volumes, and is opened twice every week for the accommodation of the Students. Resident graduates have the privilege of taking out books upon the same terms as under graduates.

In the libraries belonging to the two literary Societies there are about six thousand volumes. The total number, therefore, of volumes in the three Libraries is about fourteen thousand five hundred.

APPARATUS.

THE College possesses a valuable set of Philosophical, Astronomical and Chemical Apparatus; a well selected Mineralogical Cabinet; a Museum of Natural History, and a large collection of Drawings for the illustration of the lectures on Architecture, Astronomy, and Natural Philosophy.

A full sized Manikin, or modèle d'homme, of the most perfect kind, has just been received from Paris, for the illustration of the Lectures on Natural Theology, and on Anatomy.

EXPENSES.

THE stated Expenses of the College each session, paid in advance, exclusive of books, clothes, lights, room furniture, and travelling expenses, are as follows, viz :

A deduction of $3.00 from each of the above bills, is made in favour of those students who dispense with all attendance of servants in their private rooms.

Under certain restrictions, Students are permitted to take their meals in private families, and in this case boarding varies from $2.00 to $3.00 a week. In some cases select associations of students have been formed, whose expenses do not exceed $1.50 a week ; while the arrangements for the purpose are perfectly satisfactory, and by some preferred to every other. Besides these economical arrangements, the College has the control of funds, for the aid of indigent candidates for the ministry.

No student is permitted to take a room or to lodge out of the College buildings unless all the rooms belonging to the College are occupied.

The sums above stated are advanced for fuel ; if less be consumed than amounts to the moneys advanced, the surplus is returned ; if more, the deficiency is charged to the Student.

New Students pay five dollars entrance, and thirty-three cents for a copy of the printed laws.

When a student is dismissed from College for any cause, the whole amount advanced for board, washing, and fuel, from the time of dismission, will be refunded to the order of his parent or guardian.

TERMS AND VACATIONS.

THE College year is divided into two Terms or Sessions. The Annual Commencement is on the last Wednesday in June: and the first term of the next College year begins the 10th of August and closes on Thursday the 20th of December. The second term begins on Thursday the 1st of February, and ends on the last Wednesday of June—the day of the Annual Commencement.

It is particularly recommended that all the students when practicable, spend their vacations at home with their parents or friends; or when this is inconvenient, that they take boarding elsewhere than in Princeton; since it is found that when a number of young persons are collected together without regular occupation or study, the temptations to idleness and dissipation are often too strong to be resisted.

It is highly important that the students should return to College in time to attend the first recitations or lectures of their respective classes, since an absence of a few days at the time when a new branch of study is commenced, seldom fails to embarrass the whole course, and in some cases it is impossible to make up the loss.

PUBLIC EXERCISES.

THE ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT takes place on the last Wednesday of June.

On the day preceding the Commencement an oration is delivered before the two Literary Societies by a graduate member of one of them.

On the evening preceding the Commencement, orations are delivered by Junior members of the Societies.

The Annual meeting of the Alumni Association of Nassau Hall is held in the College Chapel on Commencement day.

Communications for this Society may be sent to W. C. Alexander, Esq., Princeton.

LAW DEPARTMENT.

THIS Department is under the direction of the Honorable Joseph C. Hornblower, late Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of New Jersey ; James S. Green, Esq., District Attorney of the United States for the State of New Jersey ; and Richard S. Field, Esq., Attorney and Counsellor at law.

The object of the Institution is to provide an ample course of legal instruction for gentlemen designed for the bar in any of the United States. This course embraces the various branches of public and constitutional Law, Equity and Common Law, together with such instruction in the local jurisprudence of the particular States as occasion may require.

Instruction is given by means of recitations, examinations, lectures, and the preparation of legal forms and instruments. A Moot Court is holden every week in which questions of law are discussed by students appointed for that purpose, and opinions delivered by one of the Professors.

The course of studies is so arranged as to be completed in three years, and the students are divided into classes according to their proficiency ; but generally speaking a student is at liberty to join any one or more of the classes, and to pursue such branches of study as he may select.

No examination is required for admission, but every student is expected to produce testimonials of good moral character, and sufficient literary and scientific attainments.

There are two terms or sessions in each year corresponding with the sessions of the College, the first beginning six weeks from the last Wednesday in June and ending in nineteen weeks or the week before Christmas ; the second beginning six weeks after the close of the first, and ending in twenty-one weeks or the last Wednesday in June.

The fees are $50 a session to be paid in advance, for which sum, and without any additional charge, students have the use of text books, and of the Law and College Libraries, and are also entitled to attend the College Chapel and the Lectures of the Professors of the College. Good board can be had in Princeton or its vicinity for from two to three dollars a week.

All students who have pursued their studies in the Law School for two years are entitled upon the recommendation of the Law Faculty to the degree of Bachelor of Laws. But if they have already been admitted to the bar they are entitled to such degree after pursuing their studies for one year.

All applications for admission, and communications touching the Law School may be made to James S. Green or Richard S. Field, of Princeton.
